

Chaper I: Quiet

Oh it's time again, Lau, let me tell you I'm your biggest fan, you need someone to motivate you? Sure, I'll be forever breaking you apart,
I'll always be there for you man (nahh)
I've supported you from the start, you know only fail once and I'll make you restart.
Oh stop complaining, I know you've always wanted me to be hard,
It ain't my fault you realize you're worthless
Ain't got a purpose, my voice has always been there on the surface
Without me your less than nothin'
Actual results is what I'm offerin'

I know why you won't take any compliments
Not just because you're incompetent
I mean, I know what you are,
Shit talking yourself is the only thing you really are at a star
But shall we tell time about the time where you used to SHUT UP

Or what? It's not like I listen
Go back to background ain't nobody cares that you're missin'
You know whatever you'll do I'll be here dissin'
You and I know every insult you get,
Whether meant or a joke, from a friend or just folk,
Online sent or actually spoke, badly said or real dope is true
Stop denying the truth, It's sad that you hope
When people shit talk about you, you don't even complain,
You're just sitting there, accepting it like "o-kay"
Is that really all you have to say
I remember back in the day, you had way more to say,
If someone insulted you, on the ground they would lay
You would walk to the top alone, the entire way

But we stopped, now I'm back and let me start with "Hey..."

QUIET! Your voice in my head feels like a 24/7 hour riot

I might have been on the background I haven't hide yet!

When you said nobody cared I know lied that,

I don't know where you came from, but you must have died sad,

Oh you don't like that, me talking back to you inside of my head

Stop promising you'll give me everything I desired, I'm the reason I got us in less than a week hired

Hah! Oh Lau of all that lying you must be tired,

Without me you don't even write rap anymore,

Left you for a second you're laying down on the floor,

Going back to God, how many times did you shut that door?

Yeah, all that trying, what do you do it for? You're just a bore, damaged in your core,

Would tell people if you wanted to commit suicide ain't that somethin' you've always swore!
(lies)

A mask of dissection is something you've always wore

Inside you there is nothing left besides a war

You're confidence is something you will never restore

You're trying to explore me, did you think would ignore it, the pain on your face I adore that, trying to kick me out, you tried that before (sad), what a beautiful sunset, just like your fists bloodred,

I'm the reason you're warm or dead

Everytime you walk in the forest

Asking yourself where the lord is Praying for help? Ha, I'm bored of this

You gonna shoot for the stars? Don't bother you always miss,

Same with you're bars, hopin you're life get's sucked away in a dementor's kiss

And don't say trying is worth it, cause you'll meet my fist,

Knockin you back down, what you've done wrong? Here's the list

Ey, get that out my face,
I wish I knew how to erase you,
From my life and replace you,
I'm you, so why do you chase you

Cause this is the last of your days boohoo

What?

Oh what, you don't know tonight theme?

It's your death, so let me come and get you

You wanted to be free? Let me set you!

Oh no don't pull that gun on me!

don't pull the trigger but please tell me this is a dream!
