

Happy Lyrics - MLM

Ey yeah, y'all might have looked at the title and thought that good right, he is in good place, so goodbye But honestly I'm not, honestly I'm waiting for the drop, (there it is) Now that's out of the way, what would you say when I'm asking you on what level you want to play?

Where you wanna end up in life, are okay with where you at, are you gonna shoot for the stars or failure gonna scare you away!
Being happy is my number one life goal, but you know what they say, the higher you climb the longer you fall so I changed, my number one life goal, nowadays my highest priority is to not put a knife in my throat (whoo)
I think I've figured life out (oh)
What does everything mean if you ain't happy (wauw)
What does everything mean if you can't look at yourself in the mirror tho Can you look People eye to eye in real life no!

Whatj's wrong, I don't know Well actually I do
I've just been wanting to be happy since I'm 8 years (true)
I don't get it,
what's that, knock knock,
who's there?
Not happy

Please please let me be happy
All I ever wanted is being happy Scared I'll end up sadly, please let me be happy What am I doing wrong? I don't understand, what am I lacking?
Am I maybe unworthy of being happy Yeah I don't get it

I get why everybody wants to be financially rich, doesn't mean I agree with most certainly cuz you good lose everything in a flinch, I just wanna fly high, give every cloud a high five, not worrying about a nice try, but I guess our world doesn't work like that, every single day wake up and you have to fight back, no progression if you're comfortable, no progression if you never fall, failing a hundred time before you make it is the law None is perfect, everyone has their own flaws, making peace with them is important, but for me as impossible as counting the stars,

I know I'm not the only one, but what does it change I feel less than everybody so I ain't the same, I can't make it like you guys, and I've heard that time flies, so I trying to be happy before my heart dies and my life ends badly Knock knock again
Oh, no please go away
But it's An old friend
And Who may that be Still not happy
