

Different Lyrics - MLM

Studying started, free time has parted,
Anxiety came back, has been hitting harded,
Gotta attack but the doubt is the master
Have the feeling like I'm lonely faster,
Like nobody has my back
I know this ain't war, but I'm not joking
Haven't talked much to my friend and I know that that led
To me, kinda feeling lonely,
But I'd rather be alone, than having people making me feel alone only

And I've tried to be owning my thoughts,
But I got so much stress that it makes me feel like I'm chocking yeah,
And I'm to scared to make some moves
To scared to actually choose
Cause it feels like I'm broken
I don't or I should let my inner beast loose
But staying here is a lose lose
I just want to do something that proofs to me, and feels real
None of y'all stood in my shoes

Different, yeah I've always had feeling
Different, like my life has got a hidden meaning
Different, even in how people have been treating me
Different, In how I've been seeing the world
Believing in God, need no one futher
Could take another beating,
Don't care how much I'm hurting,
I'm already bleeding
Unlike others I'd be out here feeding
On my thoughts, yeah there are lots of them

Feels like I'm about to be cheating, by being, believing
In the feeling that would be so freeing
Cause I'm freaking out, trying to be killing the doubt
But nothing seems to work so I guess I'll never be actually proud

The complexity of my demons is too difficult
Respectfully, back off they ain't typical Massively evolved, is hurting my physical,
Have been after me so long, and I ain't invincible, the pain has been invisible, it's a miracle
Still alive, trying to put the pain into words, yeah lyrical
Fighting along the way yes it hurts, unthinkable Lying I don't want people to stay cause I'm cursed than all the anger will burst, yeah there are millions of people who live in these worlds

Always try to be improving, advancing
Keep it moving, relentless
Stop fooling, my head is somewhere else,
So stop looking, stop booking a place in my head, while I'm doing
Everything I can, to not take another back, keeping myself on track,
Want me to leave for my mental health, but I'll make it, let's bet
Ain't surprised if you didn't get that

Different, yeah I've always had feeling
Different, like my life has got a hidden meaning
Different, even in how people have been treating me
Different, In how I've been seeing the world
Believing in God, need no one futher
Could take another beating,
Don't care how much I'm hurting,
I'm already bleeding
Unlike others I'd be out here feeding

On my thoughts, yeah there are lots of them
Feels like I'm about to be cheating, by being, believing
In the feeling that would be so freeing
Cause I'm freaking out, trying to be killing the doubt
But nothing seems to work so I guess I'll never be actually proud

Yeah people keep telling me they're impressed cause I know how I feel
Talking about emotions ain't for me a big deal
But at the same time I don't even know what is real
My mind keeps playing till I'll start killing my feelings,
Imma keep praying till I'm finally seeing, some improvement in me as a human being,
But till than, I might be alive, but I'm not believing in life
